Poly Solutions for Microsoft Teams

- Work is now more flexible and fluid, and Poly's Microsoft Teams certified solutions are at the forefront of hybrid working. Poly outfit you with pro-grade audio and video products that deliver amazing Microsoft Teams experiences – wherever you work.
 - Headsets
 - Phones and Speakerphones
 - Video conferencing

Headsets

- Hear and be heard with incredible clarity, while tuning out distractions. Delivering crazy good audio in multiple wearing styles and certified for Microsoft Teams, Poly headsets give you the confidence to tackle your most important conversations.

Headsets (continued...)

- Bluetooth - Working from anywhere means not being tied down. With Poly Bluetooth headsets, you can blaze new trails. Even while walking down one.
- DECT Wireless - Poly DECT headsets give you the security and extended range for your most critical conversations.
- USB - Just plug them in and you are ready to roll.

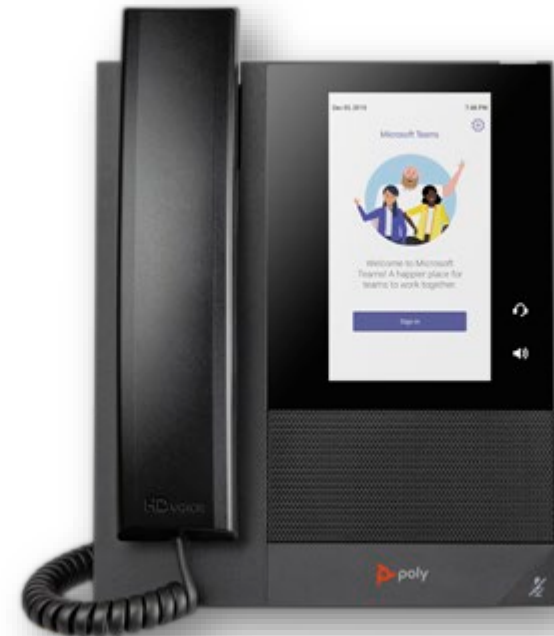

Apollo 11's lunar landing

- Poly worked closely with NASA astronauts to create a prototype headset in just 11 days. Between this time and the iconic moon landing on July 20 in 1969, Plantronics became a key supplier for headsets used for NASA space missions including Gemini, Apollo and Skylab.

Phones and Speakerphones

- Amplify your conversations on a Poly desk phone or speakerphone so every brilliant word is heard. They are Beautifully designed, simple to use and certified for Microsoft Teams.

Video Conferencing

- From personal video devices, to large room solutions, to Microsoft Teams video interoperability, Poly provides an end to end Microsoft Teams video collaboration experience.

Poly Device Demo and Walk-thru

Poly Lens

- Poly Lens is cloud-based, it'll scale with you, maintaining security without all that heavy overhead of traditional IT management.
- Did we mention simple? You can quickly get started remotely provisioning, monitoring and troubleshooting from a single pane of glass.
